Student-Seminar Report

On the 6th of November 2025, a Student-Seminar titled “Gender Dynamics of Population Education: An Exploration” was organised for the B.Ed 1st semester students in the Seminar Hall of the Department. Besides the students, the Seminar was attended by Prof. Aamina Parveen, the Head of the Department, Prof. Mohammad Yousuf Ganai (ex-faculty member) and Prof. Mohammad Sayid Bhat. In her presidential remarks, Prof. Aamina Parveen congratulated the students and the concerned teacher for organising student-seminars in the Department. She emphasised the significance of student-seminars to create a vibrant learning environment and assured her full support in organising such academic events. Prof. Mohammad Yousuf Ganai gave an inspirational talk at the event to encourage the students, and shared his valuable experiences with them. In his insightful concluding remarks, Prof. Mohammad Sayid Bhat foregrounded the contemporary relevance of Gender Education in the context of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) of the United Nations. The student-seminar was organised by the concerned teacher Dr Tanveer Hussain in accordance with the instructions of the Head of the Department to hone the academic and pedagogical skills of the students. Mumina Irfan Baba and Duha Bashir, the B.Ed. 1st semester students, shared their presentations before the audience. A brief question-and-answer session followed the presentations. The students actively participated in the event by sharing their valuable observations and thoughts and offering valuable feedback. It would be pertinent to mention here that the main aim of the seminar was to develop good communication and pedagogical skills in the students in line with the aims and objectives of NEP-2020.
